Response to Notices of Intent to Revoke (I-130)

Dear Director Richardson,

Enclosed please find our response to the Service's Notices of Intent to Revoke Mr. Tes' family's previously approved I-130 petitions.

Forms G-28 are enclosed as well.

Mr. Tes has amassed a volume of evidence indicating his communication with, and his support of, his wife and stepchildren during the past several years. Copies of that evidence are enclosed.

Pursuant to 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(16) and 8 C.F.R. § 103.2(b)(7) we are requesting that the Service provide copies of all evidence that it has knowledge of and/or has utilized or referred to, regarding the allegation of a "sham marriage."

Additionally, with regard to the alleged discrepancies in answers to interview questions at the embassy in Phnom Penh, both Mr. Tes and his wife Mrs.

Chhoeun are submitting written declarations clarifying what was said and what was understood – or perhaps misunderstood – by both of them during the interview.

Copies of documents submitted are exact photocopies of unaltered original documents and we understand that we may be required to submit original documents to an Immigration or Consular Office at a later date.

Thank you for your consideration of this important matter. Please do not hesitate to contact me if I can provide any further clarification or information that will help the Service overcome its concern about the legitimacy of the marriage.

Very truly yours,

William Frick

Dear Director Richardson,

Enclosed please find our response to the Notices of Intent to Revoke issued on April 21, 2017.

Please note that while the USCIS actively encourages the use of courier mail, the Notices do not provide a courier mail address, nor do we find a specific courier mail address available on a USCIS website for filing our response.

By way of customer service feedback, we would like to request that in the future, the Service adopt a policy of providing an exact courier address when issuing instructions on how to file via courier.

Thank you for your consideration.

Sincerely,

William Frick

Kyle,

I have run into a medical issue that has kept me from being able to work on Mr. Tes' response for the past week. Last Saturday morning I began to experience vertigo when I move my head. It has also caused frequent nausea. Because of the holiday weekend I was only able to see a doctor last Wednesday. I am receiving now treatment and medication and things are getting better, but I was completely unable to work last week.

I'm attaching a copy of the record of my visit to the Emergency Room last week. Would your client be willing to give us another 5 days - until June 12 - to submit the response?

Thank you.

Bill

RE: POV CHHOEUN
I-130, Petition for Alien Relative

A205-775-470

NOTICE OF INTENT TO REVOKE

This notice is in reference to Form I-130, Petition for Alien Relative that was filed by the petitioner pursuant to section 201(b) of the Immigration & Nationality Act, as amended. The petition was filed in behalf of POV CHHOEUN and approved by U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) on September 1, 2015. The approved petition was subsequently returned to this Center by the Department of State for further review and action. They discovered that the beneficiary is ineligible for the benefit sought.

The record shows that the approval of this petition was based upon the petitioner's marriage to the beneficiary. However USCIS has received information regarding the beneficiary's qualification for the classification sought. That information consists of the following:

SOPHAT TES the petitioner and POV CHHOEUN the beneficiary both were interviewed at the U.S. Consulate Office in Cambodia on June 6, 2016. The petitioner and the beneficiary's statements regarding the claimed relationship contradicted each other on several key points. When asked how do you know each other, POV CHHOEUN the beneficiary answered "we have known each other since 1998 because we are from the same village in Battambang province." She went on to state "his house is about 200 meters from my house, we were just freinds and neighbors." She stated the petitioner went to the U.S. in 2005 and they met again when he visited Cambodia during Khmer New Year in 2009. SOPHAT TES the petitioner answered "My mother introduced her to me when I came to Cambodian in 2009. I never knew her before. My mother said that she is a good woman."

Both the petitioner and beneficiary were asked about their engagement and wedding expenses. POV CHHOEUN the beneficiary stated that SOPHAT had paid $2000 in engagement expenses in 2012 and $3000 for the wedding expenses in 2015. SOPHAT TES answered he had paid only $300 for the engagement expenses in 2012 and $1000 on the wedding expenses in 2015.

When asked about the amount of money or items they have sent to each other, the answers again were inconsistent. POV CHHOEUN the beneficiary indicated the most money sent at one time was $700. SOPHAT TES the petitioner answered it was $1500, and that he sent that amount of money a few times already. In addition, POV CHHOEUN stated she had sent the petitioner pants through the mail.

SOPHAT TES answered that he had received clothes a few times, but through a friend who went to visit Cambodia.

The discrepancies in the answers were not only noted on the interview for this petition I-130, but also on a prior interview on June 13, 2014 based on a filed I-129F petition (WAC1390394578). During this interview POV CHHOEUN the beneficiary was not able to initially articulate when or why she fell in love with the petitioner. She did later state that it was in 2010 because he transferred money for her daughters to study. The earliest money transfer receipt submitted at the time showed a 2012 date.

POV CHHOEUN the beneficiary was unaware of the petitioner's personal history during the June 13, 2014 interview. POV CHHOEUN was completely unaware of the petitioner's first marriage. At the time of the interview SOPHAT TES the petitioner had also not provided evidence of that marriage termination. Another example, when POV CHHOEUN was asked about a child that SOPHAT TES had claimed on his taxes she believed the child's biological mother was SOPHAT'S second spouse, to whom he was married at the time. The child was in fact born to some other woman.

The answers provided in both interviews have discrepancies and contradict each other on several key factors which are generally known in a genuine relationship. The inconsistencies cast a significant doubt on the validity of the claimed relationship.

It has not been shown that the petitioner and beneficiary have a bona fide marital relationship. The petitioner has submitted a marriage certificate in an attempt to establish the claimed relationship. However, merely presenting a marriage certificate is insufficient to establish the bona fides of a marital relationship. In a number of decisions by the Board of Immigration Appeals, it has been held that although a marriage may be given legal effect in the United States or abroad, USCIS is not required to recognize the marriage for the purpose of conferring immigration benefits where the marriage was entered into for the sole purpose of obtaining immigration benefits and circumventing immigration laws.

Where there is reason to doubt the validity of the marital relationship, the petitioner must present evidence to show that the marriage is bona fide and was not entered into for the primary purpose of evading the immigration laws. Such evidence could take many forms, including, but not limited to, proof that the beneficiary has been listed as the petitioner's spouse on any insurance policies, property leases, income tax forms, or bank accounts; and testimony or other evidence regarding courtship, wedding ceremony, shared residence and experiences. The conduct of the parties after marriage is relevant to their intent at the time of marriage. Where the parties have never lived together, the amount of evidence required to establish that the marriage was not entered into for the fraudulent purpose of evading the immigration laws may be considerable. See Matter of Phillis, 15 I&N Dec. 385 (BIA 1975); Matter of Laureano, 19 I&N Dec. 1 (BIA 1983).

Finally, a marriage is deemed a "sham" if the bride and groom did not intend to establish a life together at the time they were married. See Matter of McKee, 17 I&N Dec. 332 (BIA 1980); Bark v. INS, 511 F.2d 1200 (9 Cir. 1975).

USCIS is aware that the type of evidence to establish the bona fides of a marital relationship can be somewhat limited when one spouse lives in the U.S. and the other resides overseas. However, the burden is on the petitioner to provide evidence that gives insight into the nature of their claimed relationship and the level of their emotional involvement, as a bona fide marital relationship is one that involves a fusion of two individuals' lives. Such involvement in their lives together would be expected for a married couple who intend to spend the foreseeable future together.

Further, any submitted evidence must give insight into the claimed relationship during the premarital courtship stage, the marital stage before the visa interview, and the marital stage after the visa interview. Merely submitting documentary evidence from the period of time after the visa interview will not be deemed sufficient, as the temptation exists to create the appearance of a relationship as the result of a refused visa.

The approval of any petition may be revoked for what is deemed to be good and sufficient cause. See INA§205. Good and sufficient cause exists when the evidence of record at the time the notice is issued, if unexplained and unrebutted, would warrant a denial of the visa petition based on the petitioner's failure to meet his burden of proof. Matter of Estime, 19 I&N Dec. 450 (BIA 1987).

In Matter of Ho, 19 I&N Dec. 582 (BIA 1988), the Board held that the petitioner bears the burden in visa petition revocation proceedings of establishing that the beneficiary qualifies for the benefit sought under the immigration laws.

Based on the foregoing, it appears that the marriage between the petitioner and the beneficiary is not valid for immigration purposes and that the beneficiary is not qualified for the classification sought.

Further, "good and sufficient cause" exists in the present case which supports the commencement of revocation proceedings.

In accordance with 8 C.F.R. 205.2, USCIS intends to revoke the petition. The petitioner is hereby afforded a period of 30 days from the date of this notice to submit evidence in support of the approval and in opposition to the proposed revocation. Failure to respond to this notice within the time allotted will result in the revocation of the petition.

Another example, when POV CHHOEUN was asked about a child that SOPHAT TES had claimed on his taxes she believed the child's biological mother was SOPHAT'S second spouse, to whom he was married at the time. The child was in fact born to some other woman.

The answers provided in both interviews have discrepancies and contradict each other on several key factors which are generally known in a genuine relationship. The inconsistencies cast a significant doubt on the validity of the claimed relationship.

It has not been shown that the petitioner and beneficiary have a bona fide marital relationship. The petitioner has submitted a marriage certificate in an attempt to establish the claimed relationship. However, merely presenting a marriage certificate is insufficient to establish the bona fides of a marital relationship. In a number of decisions by the Board of Immigration Appeals, it has been held that although a marriage may be given legal effect in the United States or abroad, USCIS is not required to recognize the marriage for the purpose of conferring immigration benefits where the marriage was entered into for the sole purpose of obtaining immigration benefits and circumventing immigration laws.

Where there is reason to doubt the validity of the marital relationship, the petitioner must present evidence to show that the marriage is bona fide and was not entered into for the primary purpose of evading the immigration laws. Such evidence could take many forms, including, but not limited to, proof that the beneficiary has been listed as the petitioner's spouse on any insurance policies, property leases, income tax forms, or bank accounts; and testimony or other evidence regarding courtship, wedding ceremony, shared residence and experiences. The conduct of the parties after marriage is relevant to their intent at the time of marriage. Where the parties have never lived together, the amount of evidence required to establish that the marriage was not entered into for the fraudulent purpose of evading the immigration laws may be considerable. See Matter of Phillis, 15 I&N Dec. 385 (BIA 1975); Matter of Laureano, 19 I&N Dec. 1 (BIA 1983).

Finally, a marriage is deemed a "sham" if the bride and groom did not intend to establish a life together at the time they were married. See Matter of McKee, 17 I&N Dec. 332 (BIA 1980); Bark v. INS, 511 F.2d 1200 (9 Cir. 1975).

USCIS is aware that the type of evidence to establish the bona fides of a marital relationship can be somewhat limited when one spouse lives in the U.S. and the other resides overseas. However, the burden is on the petitioner to provide evidence that gives insight into the nature of their claimed relationship and the level of their emotional involvement, as a bona fide marital relationship is one that involves a fusion of two individuals' lives. Such involvement in their lives together would be expected for a married couple who intend to spend the foreseeable future together.

Further, any submitted evidence must give insight into the claimed relationship during the premarital courtship stage, the marital stage before the visa interview, and the marital stage after the visa interview. Merely submitting documentary evidence from the period of time after the visa interview will not be deemed sufficient, as the temptation exists to create the appearance of a relationship as the result of a refused visa.

The approval of any petition may be revoked for what is deemed to be good and sufficient cause. See INA§205. Good and sufficient cause exists when the evidence of record at the time the notice is issued, if unexplained and unrebutted, would warrant a denial of the visa petition based on the petitioner's failure to meet his burden of proof. Matter of Estime, 19 I&N Dec. 450 (BIA 1987).

In Matter of Ho, 19 I&N Dec. 582 (BIA 1988), the Board held that the petitioner bears the burden in visa petition revocation proceedings of establishing that the beneficiary qualifies for the benefit sought under the immigration laws.

Based on the foregoing, it appears that the marriage between the petitioner and the beneficiary's mother is not valid for immigration purposes and that the beneficiary is not qualified for the classification sought.

Further, "good and sufficient cause" exists in the present case which supports the commencement of revocation proceedings.

In accordance with 8 C.F.R. 205.2, USCIS intends to revoke the petition. The petitioner is hereby afforded a period of 30 days from the date of this notice to submit evidence in support of the approval and in opposition to the proposed revocation. Failure to respond to this notice within the time allotted will result in the revocation of the petition.

Sophat Tes

Supplemental Declaration

Supplemental Declaration of Sophat Tes

I Sophat Tes, make this supplemental declaration, under penalty of perjury pursuant to the laws of the State of Washington.

I state the following as truth.

On May 8, 2015 I was flying to Cambodia to see my father, who was on his deathbed. My wife, Pov Chhoeun, had been caring for my father during my absence and during his decline due to his illness.

When I arrived in Taiwan, during a layover, I called my wife and she had to inform me that my father had passed away while I was in the air flying to get to him.

Our Buddhist faith and tradition require that monks be summoned and that prayers be initiated shortly before one dies and also immediately after one dies. My wife made these arrangements because my mother was not capable of doing so at that moment.

When I arrived at my father's home about 16 hours later, I took over the funeral arrangements for the next six and a half days, but during this important period just before, and just after, my father's death, it was my wife who made the arrangements for monks to come to the home and pray over him.

I feel deeply that her making these arrangements while I was still traveling was perhaps the most important part of the funeral arrangements.

For this reason, I consider her as having "made the arrangements", even though I took over the arrangements when I arrived in Cambodia.

Dated this 9 day of June 2017 at Seattle, Wash.

Letter of Clarification on Interview at US Embassy in Cambodia

Letter of Clarification
On
Interview at US Embassy in Cambodia

Thank you very much for the attorney of USCIS has e-mailed me the attached Notice of our interview at US embassy, Cambodia, on 6th June 2016.

We also thank you so much for US Department of Immigration provided us the detail information of interview thought our attorney and take this opportunity to thank US embassy in Cambodia for highly performing its responsibility.

After receiving the Notice of attorney, we have reviewed all terms we used to conversation between US embassy, Cambodia and us. We found that US embassy has much confusion to our answers. Therefore, Visa was not granted for us to live together.

To make it clear we would like to clarify on every answer as the following:

Matter 1:

- Wife: She has known you since 1998 because you both lived in the same village in Battambang province. She saw you when you came to visit in 2009 for the Khmer New Year.
- Sophat: You state your mother introduced you to your wife in 2009; your mother said she was a "good woman". Therefore, there is no evidence to show that you and your wife have known each other since 1998, as your wife stated.

CHHOEUN POV clarified the term of "Known Sophat TES since 1998 because lived in the same village in Battambang province ". It means "I heard this name and have seen sometime". It doesn't mean used to talk with each other; eat together; work together and meet him in person every day because he had served military service before I came to live in this village. On the other hand, even I live in the same village but it is not closed to fence to fence or next to that I could enter morning and evening.

The term that I spoke " Saw you when you came to visit in 2009 for the Khmer New Year" I want to say I really knew him because his mother introduced me to know him and talk with him, go with him, and eat with his family, maybe, I was scare at interview to speak unclearly and lead to misunderstand each other.

Matter 2:

- Wife: Total engagement & wedding expenses: $ 2,000 (engagement), $ 3,000 (wedding).
- Sophat: Total engagement & wedding expenses: $ 300 (engagement), $ 1,000 (wedding).

MONOPHAL Co., Ltd

CHHOEUN POV clarified the total of engagement expense I answer in the following individual's expense. I answered that the total engagement expenses: $ 2,000 which is only spent by bride's family. My husband said he spent $ 300 that was only his personnel cash for buying fruits and other things for engagement, and if it is totally calculated of both parties' expenses: $ 2,300.

For wedding expenses is same as above, we individually spent that is reason I answered in my part because most of Khmer traditional way they do like this. Therefore, I said $ 3,000 which is my part. My husband spent $ 1,500 which is his personal part and so if it is totally calculated of both parties' expenses: $ 4,500. The reason why it is inequality of expenses because my husband's money had been spent on sending me every month, sponsor application, and air tickets a lot. So we agree he should spend less than me for engagement and wedding.

On the other hand, the reason we answer individual's expenses because we want Embassy to know how much individual spent and how much it cost in total. So they can calculate in total of our answers.

Clarification: my husband told Embassy that the expense was $ 1,500, not $ 1,000 in record of Embassy.

Matter 3:

- Wife: Total amount of money or items sent to each other: $700 at one time-the most sent. Sent Sophat "pants through mail".
- Sophat: Total amount of money or items sent to each other: $1,500 "a few times"- Received clothes " a few times" through a friend who went to Cambodia.

CHHOEUN POV clarifies amount of $7, 00 is the most money that my husband sent to me monthly and it is not the most money to buy items to send to each other.

I , TES SOPHAT to certify that total amount of $ 1,500 is the most sent month which is not referred to value of items sent to each other.

Matter 4:

- Wife: June 13, 2014 interview-she is not able to identify " When or why" she fell in love with Sophat. She then stated it was in 2010 she knew why she fell in love with Sophat because he transferred money to her, so her daughter could study [USCIS records show that first transfer of money was in 2012]. She was unaware of Sophat's personal history: (1) previous marriage (s); (2) did not know who the mother of was of Sophat's child; (3) Sophat's previous relationships and the mother of his child.

CHHOEUN POV at interview, on June 13, 2014 – that I was not able to identify " When or why" I fell in love with my husband. It does not mean because he sent me money. I love him because he is a kind man, understandable to each other, and he loves my two children too. He sent me money monthly to support my life and two children's study continually since 2010.

The term said I was unaware of my husband personal history; previous marriage; did not know who the mother of his child" because I did not want to ask him about his personal issues and did not want to make him upset because of his personal issue. Love is not necessary to know whom someone's previous history. Love is with trustfully.

We affirm that everything I report above it is true. And I shall be responsible before law, if the statement is false.

I, TES SOPHAT absolutely agree in what my wife made clarification.

My name is Tes Sophat, Sex: Male, Age 50 years old, living in Redmond WA at 7802 139th Place Northeast 98052-4002, USA.

In 2009, I visited my family in Cambodia. It was the 16th of April and Khmer new year so it was tradition for my family and I to visited the pagoda to offer food for the monks. This was when I first met my wife Chhoeun Pov. She invited me and my family to share a meal together and while we were enjoying the food, my mother formally introduced us to each other. I traveled to Cambodia to visit my family and fortunately I had met someone special.

On the 30th of April 2009, I had been invited to join her nephews wedding. We all had an enjoyable time at the reception with her family and friends. We exchanged phone numbers and after that I invited her and her children to come join me on a trip to Siem Reap. She was happy to join me and the next morning we were on our way to Siem Reap. We also went to Kampong Som and Koh Rong island and it was beautiful. This trip was a great opportunity to get to know her on a deeper level and gave me the chance to learn about her life. On May 13th. I returned home to the US. I kept in touch with her and her children via phone calls. I would talk with her every weekend. On March 11th 2010 I made a quick three day visit to Cambodia and meet up with Pov again. After returning to the US I felt that I was in love with her. Again, we communicated and kept in touch through phone calls. I wanted to help and support her financially so I started sending her money monthly. I visited Cambodia again on September 9th of 2012, in order to discuss with my parents about asking for a legal engagement. The next day I invited her over to share a meal together at my mother's house. I asked her and discussed about the engagement ceremony. On September 25th 2012, we organized and had our engagement ceremony at her house. With family and my family joining us it was a great time as Pov and her children officially became family.

We had a great time together during the remainder of my visit but I had to return home on September 30th. I was accompanied by her and her children as they came with me to the capital of Phnom Penh. They took me to the airport and said our goodbyes for now. When I arrived back home, I started the process of sponsoring her and her children. With accordance with the law I wanted us to live together here in America. After I had gathered the required documents, it took us more than one year to get the Visa interview on June 13th 2014. My family and I were deeply saddened and disappointed when we were denied. I planned to re-open the case and will do anything in my power to be able to have my wife and her children granted their Visa. I came back to Cambodia again on September 28th of 2014 to request a diplomatic note from the US embassy for marriage. Due to the process of permission for marriage it took a long time so I had to return back home to Washington. After we were granted with the permission for marriage, I discuss with Pov and asked her to choose the day that she wanted to get married. On January 12th 2015 I visited Cambodia with the intent to marry Pov. And on January 19th 2015 we did just that with friends and families. After we got married we spent time together but on the 25th of January it was time to go back to America. Four months after the marriage, I was hit the horrible news, my wife informed me through call that my father was seriously sick and was admitted to the hospital. After hearing the news, I did everything I could to get back home to as fast as possible to see my father. Sadly, it still wasn't enough as my father passed away before I could reach him in time. It was a sad and hard time for my family and I but with the help of my wife we were able to organize the funeral ceremony. I returned home to the Washington on May 31st. Once I got back home I continued working on the sponsorship of my wife and our children. After some work we were able to get another interview on June 16th 2016. For the interview the US embassy wanted to interview me as well, so the both of us went together. Again, were denied her Visa and felt very saddened by the results.

Not satisfied with the result I choose to re-open the case again. I came back to Cambodia on May 15th of 2017 to gather all required documents. With the help of my attorney we have gathered documents that provide clear evidence per the USCIS request.

I certify that everything I reported in this statement is true. I shall be responsible before law, if all is false.

Letter of Affidavit

My name is CHHOEUN POV, Sex: female, Age: 47 years old, Kampong Sima village, Watkor Quarter, Battambang City, Battambang Province, Cambodia.

On 16th April 2009, The third day of Khmer New Year I had prepared food for monks and dedicated to our ancestral relatives at Kampong Sima Pagoda where is one Kilometer away from my house. After that, I met Sophat, he just came back from United State of America and he also brought food to Pagoda with his parents. Then, I invited him to have meal together at my home while we were eating, his parents introduced me to know him.

On 30th April 2009, I invited him to join my nephew's wedding and we all were very happy to have wedding reception. At that occasion he asked me for my phone number and gave me back his phone number. He invited me and my child to go with him to visit Siem Reap and the next day morning I agreed. I went to Siem Reap, Kampong Som, and Koh Kong with him and we started to know each other.

On 13th May 2009, He returned to U.S.A but he always called me every week, in particular, on weekend. He came back Cambodia on 11 March 2010 for short trip, just three days and retuned to USA, after he sent me some money every month in supporting my child's school and never missed to call me every week. He visited Cambodia again, on 9th September 2012, in order to request his parents to ask me for legal engagement. The day after he invited me to have meal together, at his mother's house to discuss about engagement. On 25th September 2012, we organized the engagement ceremony at my house, participated by both parties' guests.

On 30 September 2012, he got back to USA I took him to Pochintong International Airport. When he arrived in USA, he immediately called me and told me he had arrived. I asked how your travel was. And he answered, Yes, I was fine. But from Cambodia to Taiwan, only one stops and took 6 hours and 11 hours from Taiwan to USA, he could not sleep. He felt much tied. I told him why you should take some sleep. He replied he tried to sleep but it was not. He said that he concerned and missed me very much. I told him Please don't be worry about me I missed you too but you must take care yourself, no problem for me. I loved you my darling. After he prepared the visa application, to sponsor me and my two children, in accordance with law of United Stated of America so we could live together. He told me we were waiting until everything completed and invited to interview. While we were waiting he always called me every weekend, or after work. He visited Cambodia on 10 June 2013 for one week and he got back to USA on 16th June 2013. I took him to Phnom Penh Airport as usual. In May 2014, I had a good news from him, US embassy would invite me to have interview on 13 June 2014 and I had done interview at Phnom Penh City but I was not lucky. US embassy did not grant the Visa for me and my two children, then I felt hopeless very much. How could I do to get US Visa to live with him? After I walked out US embassy, I gave him a call to inform him my interview was not successful. He replied please don't be hopeless. He would try to continue to apply for sponsor application. On 28th September 2014, he arrived in Cambodia to get permission from Embassy for marriage. The procedure of Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation of Kingdom of Cambodia required diplomatic note from Embassy, then back to Ministry of Foreign Affairs and International Cooperation, General Department of Immigration of Ministry of Interior to get marriage permission. But those were not quickly done and those will take 6 weeks to 8 weeks can be done. He had 4 weeks only so he could not wait he must return to USA. He will come back to Cambodia to marry when he got permission. Department of Immigration called me to pick up permission and then I phoned my darling TES SOPHAT he replied if we got permission you choose day you think was good for our Khmer weeding. He told he will come to Cambodia on 16 January 2015, and then we married on 19th January 2015, participated by many guests of both parties.

After marriage, he got back to USA on 25th January 2015. He started again to apply for sponsor me and my two daughters. Four months later, my father in- law was so sick I took him to hospital and informed my husband about his father's sick that was in emergency aid. He asked (my husband) me to taking care my father in law and he was in hurry to buy flight ticket to Cambodia but unfortunately his father was died on 8 May 2015 while he was boarding and when he arrive in Taiwan Airport I told him that our father passed away. He felt very sorry about that it was one day late. When he arrived at home, he organized the funeral ceremony. After the funeral ceremony had been done, he returned to USA on 31 May 2015. Before he left he told me that I have to wait for interview again and interviewed on 6th June 2016. He also attended interview with me. For second interviews I still had no luck because Embassy did not grant the Visa. I got hopeless in second time but my husband told not to be hopeless he will work hard to prepare the sponsorship document until he had received the notice from his attorney that required us to re-documents with clear evidences to prove and he came back to Cambodia 15th May 2017, in order to redo the document that required by his attorney even he had only three days. He will return to USA on 18th May 2017.

I certify that everything I report you it is true. I shall be responsible before law, if it is false.

浪漫的晚霞誼海天一色，大海也被染成了橙色與太陽相互輝映，我們互相依偎；那是我眷戀中不變的回憶；
任憑海風吹亂我們的發，但掩不住我們眼裏對彼此的依戀和對愛的執着，那是我尋找中不變的回憶；
海域上空的陽光照耀着我們愛的旅途，那對未來的憧憬悠遠而芬芳；
揚起心的翅膀，我們張開雙臂任着思緒，隨着風，乘着愛，蔓延向那無盡的天際。

Information about the Request We Received

In this letter, we'll report the status of the request we received.

We've enclosed the transcript or transcripts that you requested on January 23, 2016.

A tax return transcript is generally available for the current processing year and for three prior years. It contains most of the information from your original return, along with information from the forms and schedules you filed with it.

The transcript, however, does not contain changes made to the return, by either you or us, after you filed the return. Such changes could include your filing an amended return, corrections we make to the return because we discovered a math mistake, or a payment credited after you filed the return. The transcript also does not show refunds.

Information for current tax years is available immediately on our computer systems. Delivery time to you depends on how you submit your request and the delivery method you select to receive the information.

If you have any questions about information contained in the transcripts or other enclosed information, please call us at the IRS telephone number listed in your local directory or at 1-800-829-0922.

Sincerely Yours,

Notice to Employee

Do you have to file? Refer to the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to file a tax return. Even if you do not have to file a tax return, you may be eligible for a refund if box 2 shows an amount or if you are eligible for any credit.

Earned income credit (EIC). You may be able to take the EIC for 2015 if your adjusted gross income (AGI) is less than a certain amount. The amount of the credit is based on income and family size. Workers without children could qualify for a smaller credit. You and any qualifying children must have valid social security numbers (SSNs). You cannot take the EIC if your investment income is more than the specified amount for 2015 or if income is earned for services provided while you were an inmate at a penal institution. For 2015 income limits and more information, visit www.irs.gov/eitc. Also see Pub. 596, Earned Income Credit. Any EIC that is more than your tax liability is refunded to you, but only if you file a tax return.

Clergy and religious workers. If you are not subject to social security and Medicare taxes, see Pub. 517, Social Security and Other Information for Members of the Clergy and Religious Workers.

Corrections. If your name, SSN, or address is incorrect, correct Copies B, C, and 2 and ask your employer to correct your employment record. Be sure to ask the employer to file Form W-2c, Corrected Wage and Tax Statement, with the Social Security Administration (SSA) to correct any name, SSN, or money amount error reported to the SSA on Form W-2. Be sure to get your copies of Form W-2c from your employer for all corrections made so you may file them with your tax return. If your name and SSN are correct but are not the same as shown on your social security card, you should ask for a new card that displays your correct name at any SSA office or by calling 1-800-772-1213. You also may visit the SSA at www.socialsecurity.gov.

Cost of employer-sponsored health coverage (if such cost is provided by the employer). The reporting in box 12, using code DD, of the cost of employer-sponsored health coverage is for your information only. The amount reported with code DD is not taxable.

Credit for excess taxes. If you had more than one employer in 2015 and more than $7,347 in social security and/or Tier I railroad retirement (RRTA) taxes were withheld, you may be able to claim a credit for the excess against your federal income tax. If you had more than one railroad employer and more than $4,321.80 in Tier 2 RRTA tax was withheld, you also may be able to claim a credit. See your Form 1040 or Form 1040A instructions and Pub. 505, Tax Withholding and Estimated Tax.

Instructions for Employee

Box 1. Enter this amount on the wages line of your tax return.

Box 2. Enter this amount on the federal income tax withheld line of your tax return.

Box 5. You may be required to report this amount on Form 8959, Additional Medicare Tax. See the Form 1040 instructions to determine if you are required to complete Form 8959.

Box 6. This amount includes the 1.45% Medicare Tax withheld on all Medicare wages and tips shown in Box 5, as well as the 0.9% Additional Medicare Tax on any of those Medicare wages and tips above $200,000.

Box 8. This amount is not included in boxes 1, 3, 5, or 7. For information on how to report tips on your tax return, see your Form 1040 instructions.

You must file Form 4137, Social Security and Medicare Tax on Unreported Tip Income, with your income tax return to report at least the allocated tip amount unless you can prove that you received a smaller amount. If you have records that show the actual amount of tips you received, report that amount even if it is more or less than the allocated tips. On Form 4137 you will calculate the social security and Medicare tax owed on the allocated tips shown on your Form(s) W-2 that you must report as income and on other tips you did not report to your employer. By filing Form 4137, your social security tips will be credited to your social security record (used to figure your benefits).

Box 10. This amount includes the total dependent care benefits that your employer paid to you or incurred on your behalf (including amounts from a section 125 (cafeteria) plan). Any amount over $5,000 is also included in box 1. Complete Form 2441, Child and Dependent Care Expenses, to compute any taxable and nontaxable amounts.

Box 11. This amount is (a) reported in box 1 if it is a distribution made to you from a nonqualified deferred compensation or nongovernmental section 457(b) plan or (b) included in box 3 and/or 5 if it is a prior year deferral under a nonqualified or section 457(b) plan that became taxable for social security and Medicare taxes this year because there is no longer a substantial risk of forfeiture of your right to the deferred amount. This box should not be used if you had a deferral and a distribution in the same calendar year. If you made a deferral and received a distribution in the same calendar year, and you are or will be age 62 by the end of the calendar year, your employer should file Form SSA-131, Employer Report of Special Wage Payments, with the Social Security Administration and give you a copy.

Box 12. The following list explains the codes shown in box 12. You may need this information to complete your tax return. Elective deferrals (codes D, E, F, and S) and designated Roth contributions (codes AA, BB, and EE) under all plans are generally limited to a total of $18,000 ($12,500 if you only have SIMPLE plans; $21,000 for section 403(b) plans if you qualify for the 15-year rule explained in Pub. 571). Deferrals under code G are limited to $18,000. Deferrals under code H are limited to $7,000.

However, if you were at least age 50 in 2015, your employer may have allowed an additional deferral of up to $6,000 ($3,000 for section 401(k)(11) and 408(p) SIMPLE plans). This additional deferral amount is not subject to the overall limit on elective deferrals. For code G, the limit on elective deferrals may be higher for the last 3 years before you reach retirement age. Contact your plan administrator for more information. Amounts in excess of the overall elective deferral limit must be included in income. See the "Wages, Salaries, Tips, etc." line instructions for Form 1040.

Note. If a year follows code D through H, S, Y, AA, BB, or EE, you made a make-up pension contribution for a prior year(s) when you were in military service. To figure whether you made excess deferrals, consider these amounts for the year shown, not the current year. If no year is shown, the contributions are for the current year.
